How to read an entry. Each hadith appears once. The main text is the fullest version found. Upright text appears in every full version; italic text appears only in some versions (the appendix says which). The bracket below each hadith gives:

- ⋆ one star per book that carries the full hadith, ✯ per book that carries only a fragment of it;
- ● Muttafaq ʿalayh — in both al-Bukhārī and Muslim; ● in one of the two;
- the book letters (B al-Bukhārī, M Muslim) and the appendix entry (→A12);
- ≈ the grouping of these narrations rests on an uncertain machine judgement; a researcher should check it.

Stars count how many books carry a hadith. They say nothing about its authenticity.

This is a draft. The English is a machine translation made for this sample and has not been reviewed. Topics come from a provisional list. Numbering: al-Bukhārī by Fuʾād ʿAbd al-Bāqī (= Fatḥ al-Bārī); Muslim by Fuʾād ʿAbd al-Bāqī with letter suffixes for supporting chains.

1. Al-Khudrī [Abū Saʿīd] reported that some men from among the hypocrites, in the time of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, would stay behind whenever the Prophet ﷺ went out on a military expedition, and they would rejoice in their staying behind, in opposition to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Then when the Prophet ﷺ returned, they would make excuses to him and swear oaths, and they loved to be praised for what they had not done. So it was revealed: {Do not think that those who rejoice in what they have done and love to be praised for what they have not done—do not think they are in safety from the punishment.}

2. Muʿādh used to pray with the Prophet ﷺ and then go back and lead his own people in prayer. One night he prayed the ʿIshāʾ prayer with the Prophet ﷺ, then came to his people and led them, and he began with Sūrat al-Baqarah. A man turned away, gave the salām, then prayed by himself and left. They said to him, "Have you become a hypocrite, so-and-so?" He said, "No, by Allah! I will certainly go to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and tell him." So he went to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and said, "O Messenger of Allah, we are people who work with water-carrying camels, labouring during the day, and Muʿādh prayed ʿIshāʾ with you, then came and began with Sūrat al-Baqarah." The Messenger of Allah ﷺ turned to Muʿādh and said: "O Muʿādh, are you a cause of trial? Recite such-and-such, and recite such-and-such." Sufyān said: I said to ʿAmr, "Abū al-Zubayr narrated to us from Jābir that he said [the Prophet ﷺ said]: 'Recite: By the sun and its brightness; and by the morning brightness; and by the night when it covers; and Glorify the name of your Lord, the Most High.'" ʿAmr said something similar to this.

كَانَ مُعَاذٌ يُصَلِّي مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صلى الله عليه وسلم ثُمَّ يَأْتِي فَيَؤُمُّ قَوْمَهُ فَصَلَّى لَيْلَةً مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صلى الله عليه وسلم الْعِشَاءَ ثُمَّ أَتَى قَوْمَهُ فَأَمَّهُمْ فَافْتَتَحَ بِسُورَةِ الْبَقَرَةِ فَانْحَرَفَ رَجُلٌ فَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ صَلَّى وَحْدَهُ وَانْصَرَفَ فَقَالُوا لَهُ أَنَافَقْتَ يَا فُلاَنُ قَالَ لاَ وَاللَّهِ وَلآتِيَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم فَلأُخْبِرَنَّهُ. فَأَتَى رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ

3. And he was one of the Companions of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. He said: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ went out one day to pray for rain. He turned his back to the people, supplicating to Allah, and faced the qiblah, and he turned his cloak around. Then he prayed two rakʿahs.

وَكَانَ، مِنْ أَصْحَابِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم يَقُولُ خَرَجَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم يَوْمًا يَسْتَسْقِي فَجَعَلَ إِلَى النَّاسِ ظَهْرَهُ يَدْعُو اللَّهَ وَاسْتَقْبَلَ الْقِبْلَةَ وَحَوَّلَ رِدَاءَهُ ثُمَّ صَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ

4. Saʿd ibn ʿUbādah fell ill, so the Prophet ﷺ came to visit him, together with ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAwf, Saʿd ibn Abī Waqqāṣ, and ʿAbdullāh ibn Masʿūd, may Allah be pleased with them. When he entered and found him surrounded by his family, he said, "Has he passed away?" They said, "No, O Messenger of Allah." The Prophet ﷺ wept, and when the people saw the Prophet ﷺ weeping, they wept too. Then he said, "Do you not listen? Indeed Allah does not punish for the tears of the eye, nor for the grief of the heart, but He punishes for this"—and he pointed to his tongue—"or He shows mercy. And indeed the dead person is punished because of his family's weeping over him." ʿUmar, may Allah be pleased with him, used to strike with a stick over this, throw stones, and throw dust [at those who wailed].

5. Some people from the Anṣār asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ [for something], and he gave to each one who asked, until what he had was exhausted. Then, when everything he had in his hands had been spent, he said to them: "Whatever good I have, I will never withhold it from you. Whoever seeks to be chaste, Allah will make him chaste; whoever strives to be patient, Allah will grant him patience; and whoever seeks to be self-sufficient, Allah will make him self-sufficient. And no one has ever been given a gift better and more expansive than patience."

6. Ibn ʿAbbās used to say: "No one performs ṭawāf around the House, whether a pilgrim or not, except that he becomes released from ihrām." I said to ʿAṭāʾ: "From where did he derive that?" He said: "From the saying of Allah, the Exalted: {Then its place of sacrifice is at the Ancient House.}" I said: "But that is after [standing at] ʿArafah." He said: "Ibn ʿAbbās used to say: It is after ʿArafah and before it." And he used to take that from the command of the Prophet ﷺ when he ordered them to leave the state of ihrām during the Farewell Hajj.

7. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to the couple who had exchanged oaths of condemnation (liʿān): " Your reckoning is with Allah; one of you is lying. You have no claim over her." The man said, "O Messenger of Allah, what about my property?" He said: " You have no property [to reclaim]. If you spoke the truth about her, it is in return for what you made lawful of her private part; and if you lied about her, then that is even further from you." Zuhayr said in his narration: Sufyān narrated to us from ʿAmr, who heard Saʿīd ibn J̌ubayr say: I heard Ibn ʿUmar say: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said

قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم لِلْمُتَلاَعِنَيْنِ " حِسَابُكُمَا عَلَى اللَّهِ أَحَدُكُمَا كَاذِبٌ لاَ سَبِيلَ لَكَ عَلَيْهَا ". قَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ مَالِي قَالَ " لاَ مَالَ لَكَ إِنْ كُنْتَ صَدَقْتَ عَلَيْهَا فَهُوَ بِمَا اسْتَحْلَلْتَ مِنْ فَرْجِهَا وَإِنْ كُنْتَ كَذَبْتَ عَلَيْهَا فَذَاكَ أَبْعَدُ لَكَ مِنْهَا ". قَالَ زُهَيْرٌ فِي رِوَايَتِهِ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ عَمْرٍو سَمِعَ سَعِيدَ بْنَ جُبَيْرٍ يَقُولُ سَمِعْتُ ابْنَ عُمَرَ يَقُولُ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم

8. The Prophet ﷺ used to go round to his wives in a single hour of the night or day, and they were eleven. [Qatādah] said: I asked Anas, "Was he able to do that?" 9. A freed slave woman of Maymūnah was given a sheep as charity (ṣadaqah), and it died. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ passed by it and said: " Why did you not take its hide, tan it, and benefit from it?" They said, "It is carrion." He said: " Only eating it has been forbidden." Abū Bakr and Ibn Abī ʿUmar said in their narration, on the authority of Maymūnah, may Allah be pleased with her.

11. A man asked permission to see the Prophet ﷺ, and when [the Prophet ﷺ] saw him, he said: " What an evil brother of the clan, and what an evil son of the clan!" Then when the man sat down, the Prophet ﷺ showed him a cheerful face and was at ease with him. When the man left, ʿĀ'ishah said to him, "O Messenger of Allah, when you saw the man you said such and such about him, and then you showed him a cheerful face and were at ease with him?" The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: " O ʿĀ'ishah, when have you ever known me to be obscene? Indeed, the worst of people in position with Allah on the Day of Resurrection is the one whom people leave alone out of fear of his evil."

So he gave it to him, then came back and said, "I gave him honey to drink, but it only made his diarrhea worse." [The Prophet ﷺ] told him [the same] three times. Then he came a fourth time, and he said, "Give him honey to drink." The man said, "I did give it to him, but it only made his diarrhea worse." The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Allah has spoken the truth, and your brother's stomach has lied." So he gave him [the honey] to drink, and he recovered.

13. I sat with Abū Hurayrah for five years, and I heard him narrate from the Prophet ﷺ, who said: "The Children of Israel were governed by prophets; whenever one prophet died, another prophet succeeded him. 14. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ sent us out, three hundred riders, with Abū ʿUbaydah ibn al-Jarrāḥ as our commander, to watch for a caravan of Quraysh. We stayed on the coast for half a month, and we were struck by severe hunger, so much so that we ate khabṭ (leaves). So it was called the Army of the Khabṭ. Then the sea cast up for us an animal called al-ʿAnbar, and we ate from it for half a month and rubbed ourselves with its fat until our bodies recovered. He said: Abū ʿUbaydah took one of its ribs and set it upright, then looked for the tallest man in the army and the tallest camel, and loaded him on it, and he passed beneath it. He said: A group of men sat in the socket of its eye, and he said: we took out of the hollow of its eye so many jars of fat. He said: We had with us a bag of dates, and Abū ʿUbaydah would give each man among us a handful, then he gave us a single date each, and when it ran out, we felt its loss.

16. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ never refused me [entry] since I accepted Islam, and he never looked at me except that he smiled in my face. Ibn Numayr added in his narration from Ibn Idrīs: "I complained to him that I could not stay steady on horses, so he struck my chest with his hand and said: 'O Allah, make him steadfast, and make him one who guides and is rightly guided.'"

17. When ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb was laid on his bier, the people gathered around him, supplicating, praising him, and praying over him before he was lifted up, and I was among them. [The narrator] said: Nothing startled me except a man who took hold of my shoulder from behind. I turned to him, and it was ʿAlī. He asked Allah to have mercy on ʿUmar and said: "You have left behind no one whom I would love more to meet Allah with the like of his deeds than you. By Allah, I always thought that Allah would place you with your two companions, because I often used to hear the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: " "I came, and Abū Bakr and ʿUmar; I entered, and Abū Bakr and ʿUmar; and I went out, and Abū Bakr and ʿUmar." So I truly hoped, or thought, that Allah would place you with them both."

18. Three men came to the houses of the wives of the Prophet ﷺ asking about the worship of the Prophet ﷺ. When they were informed of it, they seemed to consider it too little, and said, "Where are we compared to the Prophet ﷺ? Allah has forgiven him his earlier and later sins." One of them said, "As for me, I will pray all night, always." Another said, "I will fast every day and never break my fast." And another said, "I will keep away from women and never marry." Then the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came and said, " Are you the ones who said such and such? By Allah, I am the most fearful of Allah among you and the most mindful of Him, but I fast and I break my fast, I pray and I sleep, and I marry women. So whoever turns away from my sunnah is not of me."

24. A drought afflicted the people in the time of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. While the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was delivering the sermon from the pulpit on Friday, a Bedouin stood up and said, "O Messenger of Allah, the livestock have perished and the families are starving, so supplicate Allah for us that He may send us rain." He said: So the Messenger of Allah ﷺ raised his hands, though there was not a trace of cloud in the sky. He said: Then clouds rose up like mountains, and he did not descend from his pulpit until I saw the rain dripping down his beard. He said: So it rained on us that day, and the next day, and the day after that, and the one following it, until the next Friday. Then that Bedouin, or another man, stood up and said, "O Messenger of Allah, the buildings have collapsed and the livestock have drowned, so supplicate Allah for us." So the Messenger of Allah ﷺ raised his hands and said: "O Allah, around us and not upon us." He said: Whenever he pointed with his hand toward a region of the sky, it cleared, until Medina became like an open basin, and the valley, the valley of Qanāh, flowed for a month. He said: And no one came from any direction except that he spoke of the abundant rain.

26. Anas ibn Mālik narrated to us from Abū Ṭalḥah: that on the day of Badr the Prophet of Allah ﷺ ordered that twenty-four men from the leaders of Quraysh be thrown into one of the wells of Badr, a foul, filthy pit. And whenever he gained victory over a people, he would stay at the battlefield for three nights. So when he was at Badr on the third day, he ordered that his riding camel be saddled, then he set off walking, and his Companions followed him, saying, "We think he is going only for some need of his," until he stood at the edge of the well. Then he began to call them by their names and their fathers' names, saying: "O so-and-so, son of so-and-so, and O so-and-so, son of so-and-so, would it please you that you had obeyed Allah and His Messenger? For we have found what our Lord promised us to be true, so have you found what your Lord promised you to be true?" He said: ʿUmar said, "O Messenger of Allah, how can you speak to bodies that have no souls?" The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "By the One in whose hand is the soul of Muḥammad, you do not hear what I say any better than they do." Qatādah said: Allah revived them so that they would hear his words, as a rebuke, a humiliation, a retribution, and as regret and remorse.

28. A prayer in the mosque of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ is better than a thousand prayers in any other mosque, except the Sacred Mosque (al-Masjid al-Ḥarām); for the Messenger of Allah ﷺ is the last of the prophets, and his mosque is the last of the mosques. Abū Salamah and Abū ʿAbd Allāh said: We had no doubt that Abū Hurayrah was saying this from the hadith of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, and that kept us from asking Abū Hurayrah to confirm that hadith. Then, when Abū Hurayrah died, we discussed it and blamed one another for not having spoken to Abū Hurayrah about it, so that he might trace it back to the Messenger of Allah

ﷺ if he had heard it from him. While we were in that state, we sat with ʿAbd Allāh ibn Ibrāhīm ibn Qāriẓ, and we mentioned that hadith and how we had fallen short in getting Abū Hurayrah's explicit statement about it. ʿAbd Allāh ibn Ibrāhīm said to us: I bear witness that I heard Abū Hurayrah say: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "I am the last of the prophets, and my mosque is the last of the mosques."

33. The Prophet ﷺ led us in the dawn prayer in Makkah and began reciting Sūrat al-Muʾminūn, until he reached the mention of Moses and Aaron, or the mention of Jesus—Muḥammad ibn ʿAbbād was unsure, or they differed in reporting it from him—whereupon the Prophet ﷺ was seized by a cough, so he bowed. And ʿAbd Allāh ibn al-Sāʾib was present at that. And in the narration of ʿAbd al-Razzāq, [the wording is] "so he left off [the recitation]; then he bowed." And in his narration, [it says] "and ʿAbd Allāh ibn ʿAmr." And he did not say "Ibn al-ʿĀṣ."

35. I was a guest of Abū Hurayrah for seven days, and I saw that he, his wife, and his servant would divide the night into three parts among themselves; one would pray, then wake the next. And I heard him say: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ distributed dates among his Companions, and I received seven dates, one of which was a hard, dried-up date.

تَضَيَّفْتُ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ سَبْعًا، فَكَانَ هُوَ وَامْرَأَتُهُ وَخَادِمُهُ يَعْتَقِبُونَ اللَّيْلَ أَثْلاَثًا، يُصَلِّي هَذَا، ثُمَّ يُوقِظُ هَذَا. وَسَمِعْتُهُ يَقُولُ قَسَمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم بَيْنَ أَصْحَابِهِ تَمْرًا، فَأَصَابَنِي سَبْعُ تَمَرَاتٍ إِحْدَاهُنَّ حَشَفَةٌ

36. When revelation was sent down upon the Prophet of Allah ﷺ, he would be distressed by it and his face would darken. He said: One day it was revealed to him, and he was affected in the same way. Then, when it lifted from him, he said: "Take it from me: Allah has made a way for them. The previously married man with the previously married woman, and the unmarried man with the unmarried woman. For the previously married, one hundred lashes and then stoning with stones; and for the unmarried, one hundred lashes and then banishment for a year."

And if they do not take any spoils, their reward is complete for them."

أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم قَالَ " مَا مِنْ غَازِيَةٍ تَغْزُو فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَيُصِيبُونَ الْغَنِيمَةَ إِلاَّ تَعَجَّلُوا ثُلُثَىْ أَجْرِهِمْ مِنَ الآخِرَةِ وَيَبْقَى لَهُمُ الثُّلُثُ وَإِنْ لَمْ يُصِيبُوا غَنِيمَةً تَمَّ لَهُمْ أَجْرُهُمْ "

41. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Satirize Quraysh, for it is harsher on them than a shower of arrows." So he sent for Ibn Rawāḥah and said, "Satirize them." He satirized them, but [the Prophet ﷺ] was not pleased. Then he sent for Kaʿb ibn Mālik, and then he sent for Ḥassān ibn Thābit. When [Ḥassān] came to him, he said, "The time has come for you to send for this lion who strikes with his tail." Then he stuck out his tongue and began to move it, and said, "By the One who sent you with the truth, I will tear them apart with my tongue as leather is torn." The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Do not be hasty, for Abū Bakr is the most knowledgeable of Quraysh about their lineages, and I have kinship among them, so wait until he has distinguished my lineage for you." So Ḥassān went to him, then returned and said, "O Messenger of Allah, he has distinguished your lineage for me. By the One who sent you with the truth, I will pull you out from among them as a hair is pulled out of dough."

أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم قَالَ " اهْجُوا قُرَيْشًا فَإِنَّهُ أَشَدُّ عَلَيْهَا مِنْ رَشْقٍ بِالنَّبْلِ ". فَأَرْسَلَ إِلَى ابْنِ رَوَاحَةَ فَقَالَ " اهْجُهُمْ ". فَهَجَاهُمْ فَلَمْ يُرْضِ فَأَرْسَلَ إِلَى كَعْبِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ ثُمَّ أَرْسَلَ إِلَى حَسَّانَ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ فَلَمَّا دَخَلَ عَلَيْهِ قَالَ حَسَّانُ قَدْ آنَ لَكُمْ أَنْ تُرْسِلُوا إِلَى هَذَا الأَسَدِ الضَّارِبِ بِذَنَبِهِ ثُمَّ أَدْلَعَ لِسَانَهُ فَجَعَلَ يُحَرِّكُهُ فَقَالَ وَالَّذِي بَعَثَكَ بِالْحَقِّ لأَفْرِيَنَّهُمْ بِلِسَانِي فَرْيَ الأَدِيمِ. فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم " لاَ تَعْجَلْ فَإِنَّ أَبَا بَكْرٍ أَعْلَمُ قُرَيْشٍ بِأَنْسَابِهَا - وَإِنَّ لِي فِيهِمْ نَسَبًا - حَتَّى يُلَخِّصَ لَكَ نَسَبِي ". فَأَتَاهُ حَسَّانُ

44. Qays reported that she said: Tamīm al-Dārī came to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and told the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that he had sailed on the sea, and his ship was lost, so he was cast up onto an island. He went out onto it looking for water, and he met a person dragging his hair. He then related the rest of the hadith, in which [the figure] said: "Were I permitted to go out, I would have trodden all lands except Ṭaybah." So the Messenger of Allah ﷺ brought him out to the people and he told them. He said: "This is Ṭaybah, and that is the Dajjāl."
